

UNC

THE WILLIAM AND IDA FRIDAY
CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

Daytime Enrichment Classes

FALL 2015

As summer winds down and autumn gets into full swing, join The Friday Center for a season of learning. All daytime classes are 10 am–noon unless otherwise noted.

FALL CLASSES

Write Your Life | Sep 3, 10, & 24

Draw on the “material” of your life to write and revise creative writing projects.

Facebook 101 | Sep 10

Learn how to use Facebook to keep up with friends and renew old acquaintances.

The Blues: Music, Stories, and Conversations | Sep 24

Hear performances of early blues music and stories about the songs and the artists.

Movies in the Morning: The Lady from Shanghai | Oct 8, 10 am-12:15 pm

See the 1948 original film version of The Lady from Shanghai, followed by a discussion led by noted film professor, Kimball King.

Financial Planning for Your Next Phase | Oct 15

This class guides participants through the basics of planning past their mid-life career phase.

Quilts and the Artistic Imagination of Gee's Bend | Oct 8, 22

Explore the extraordinary creative work of the quilt makers from the central Alabama community of Gee's Bend.

Fee: Write Your Life $15. All other classes $10.

UNC Retired Faculty Association Member Discount:
All classes only $5!

TO REGISTER:

fri.center/daytimeclasses
or call 919-962-2643